and the name is – Jack Stone –
our city's favorite hero.

RORY011

BOB:

And to tell us more about our hero is …

BOB: (CONT.)
…our own intrepid Harbor ResQ Chief, Robbie Hardman.

BOB: (CONT.)
Robbie…

RESQ CHIEF: (RESQ001)
Yeah, Hi there.

RESQ001

BOB:
Well, everyone has at least one -- Jack Stone story.

RESQ CHIEF:
Yeah that's, that's right, Bob. (RESQ002)

RESQ002

BOB:
So, what's yours?

RESQ CHIEF:
Oh, erm, yeah! It all happened at Carnival time… (RESQ003

RESQ003

RESQ CHIEF: (VO)
It was a beautiful day, the crowd were loving the parade everyone was having a great time when out of the blue…

RESQ004

DUCK:

QUACK

CROWD: Screams!!

POLICEMAN: (TOWARDS HELICOPTER)
Call Harbor Rescue!!

RESQ CHIEF: (VO)
By now, there were lives at stake.
And the water kept rising.

RESQ005

MAN 5:
Oh no!

MAN5001

PILOT:

FEMALE POLICE PILOT 1: (TO RESQ PILOT 1)
We can't go any lower.

RPILOT001

RESQ PILOT 1:
Ahh We need a, a… ResQ boat. Over

RPILOT002

BOAT CAPTAIN: (TO RADIO)
Ahhhh….Can't do it, Chief.

BCAPT001

BOAT CAPTAIN: (CONT. TO RADIO)
That's it. We're stuck!

BCAPT002

RESQ CHIEF: (VO)

RESQ011

He just takes what's there, and rebuilds it into somethin' new!

RESQ012

BOB:
Incredible. Let's take another look at just how he did it.

RESQ CHIEF: (VO)
Sure Bob, Jack knew that 'copters and the boats couldn't do it on their own.

RESQ013

BOB: (VO)
So he put them together!!

See the duck, skimming low over the water?

Great inspiration!

RESQ015

RESQ CHIEF: (VO)
That's right. The heli-blades lifted the boat over all the obstacles, but they still kept low enough to stay under the banners.

RESQ016

BOB: (VO)
And everyone got home safely.

BOB: Incredible.

RESQ CHIEF:
Fantastic. Later, of course, Jack went and fixed the water tower, but that's another story.

RESQ017

BOB:
And the heliboat?

RESQ CHIEF:
We've built one ourselves and are running some tests on it.

RESQ018

BOB:
Great. And now, let's welcome our second guest in the studio.
Our very own Chief of Police, Bud Brick!

POLICE CHIEF:
Howdy, Bob.
Howdy, Robbie.

BOB:

That's all the inspiration Jack Stone needed.

BOB:
So, Chief Flame, will the Fire Department
use this new method of fire fighting?

FIRE CHIEF:

Well, Bob, I think we'll stick to our usual methods.

BOB:
But a machine for lifting buildings, that could be useful.

FIRE CHIEF:
Err, yes -- light, portable, easy to assemble – remarkable!!

BOB: (LAUGHING AT HIS OWN JOKE)
Arr…You can take a building to water, but you can't make it drink, eh Chief? Haa!

FIRE CHIEF: (SERIOUSLY)
Fire is never a laughing matter, Bob.

BOB: (SUDDENLY SERIOUS)
I'm sorry to interrupt, but it, er, it, seems that we have a breaking story coming in.
